

Privacy Policy

Your privacy is very important to us. Here at Ethical ICO we have a few fundamental principles:

- We don't ask you for personal information unless we absolutely need it.
- Your address, telephone number, gender or income level is yours. If we need this information to work with you we will treat it in the strictest confidence.
- We will never share your personal information with anyone other than where it is necessary by law or to protect our rights.
- We don't store personal information on our website or servers unless required for the on-going operation of our relationship with you.
- We make every effort to make it as simple as possible for you to control what is visible to the public, seen by search engines, kept private or permanently deleted.

If you have questions about deleting or correcting your personal data please contact our support team.

Ethical ICO operates several websites including www.Ethical ICO.co and www.Ethical ICO.co.uk. It is our duty and our policy to respect your privacy and any information we may collect about you in the course of our business while operating our websites.

Visitors to our websites

Ethical ICO collects non-personal information of the sort that web browsers and servers typically make available, such as your browser type, language settings, referring site and the date and time of each visitor request.

Our purpose in collecting non-personally identifying information is to have a better understanding of how Ethical ICO's visitors use our websites.

From time to time, Ethical ICO may release aggregated and anonymised non-personally-identifying information by publishing reports on industry trends. No personally identifying information is included in this data.

From time to time Ethical ICO may also collect potentially personally-identifying information like Internet Protocol (IP) addresses of visitors to our websites. We will not use or disclose this information unless otherwise compelled by law to protect our interests or to safeguard our clients' interests.

Gathering of Personally-Identifying Information

Some visitors to the various Ethical ICO websites will choose to interact with us in ways that require Ethical ICO to gather personally identifying information, including, but not limited to, business enquiries, requests for quotations or to ask for information about Ethical ICO services.

The amount or type of information that Ethical ICO gathers will depend on the nature of the interaction. For example, we may ask visitors who wish to log in at Ethical ICO.co.uk to provide an email address or telephone number, business description or other information to allow us to contact them, review a business case or provide other information or services.

We will never disclose this information to any third party or share the information or data outside of the Ethical ICO management team and appropriate staff.

Ethical ICO requests this information only where it is necessary or appropriate to fulfil the purpose of the visitor's interaction with Ethical ICO. Ethical ICO does not disclose personally-identifying information other than as described in 'Protection of Personally Identifying Information' below.

All visitors to the Ethical ICO websites are at liberty to refuse to supply personally identifying information if that is their wish, on the understanding that it may prevent them from interaction with Ethical ICO or availing themselves of Ethical ICO's products or services.

We will never share or sell your data, information or the specifics of your visit to any of the websites owned or operated by Ethical ICO Ltd without your express written consent.

Use of our websites does not constitute consent of any kind.

Aggregated Data

Ethical ICO may collect behavioural statistics on visitors to its websites, including, but not limited to, pages visited, the amount of time a visitor spent on each web page, links clicked and referring site on arrival and destination site upon leaving a Ethical ICO website. Ethical ICO may publish or display this information publicly or provide it to other businesses in anonymised and aggregated form, without any personally identifying data or information included, other than as set out below under However, Ethical ICO does not disclose personally-identifying information other than as described below.

Protection of Personally Identifying Information

Ethical ICO only discloses personally identifying information to those of its employees, contractors, sub-contractors or affiliated organizations that (i) require such information in order to process it on Ethical ICO's behalf or to provide the products or services available at Ethical ICO's websites, and (ii) who have undertaken and agreed not to disclose it to others.

Some of those employees, contractors and affiliated organizations may be located outside of your country of residence or business operation.

By using Ethical ICO's websites, you consent to the transfer of such information to them.

Ethical ICO will never lend, rent or sell personally identifying information to anyone.

Other than to its employees, contractors and affiliated organisations, as described above, and only in order for them to conduct their roles or responsibilities in connection with the products or services provided by Ethical ICO, Ethical ICO will only disclose potentially personally identifying or personally-identifying information where it is required or demanded by law, in the form of a subpoena, court order or other Government order, or in the event that Ethical ICO believes in good faith that disclosure is reasonably necessary to protect the interests, property or rights of Ethical ICO, third parties or the general public.

If you are a user of a Ethical ICO website and have supplied your email address, Ethical ICO may occasionally send you an email to tell you about new features, request your feedback or keep you informed of Ethical ICO's business, products or services, as well as those of our clients.

Ethical ICO does not store personal or personally identifying information on its web servers and at all times takes all reasonable measures to protect against the unauthorized access, use, alteration or destruction of personally identifying and information.
